

Summer Camp 2018

Weekly Themes

May 29th – June 1st --- Aloha Summer Character Challenge: Positive Peer Influence

Kicking off summer camp brings many challenges to our campers. We have campers that come from many different schools, towns, counties, and even other states. This week we will start getting to know the different people in our groups and learn the importance of being a good friend and a positive influence.

June 4th - June 8th --- Disney Character Challenge: Honesty

Disney week will be so much fun as we do activities about our favorite Disney characters and movies. The kids AND the staff will be so excited to let their imagination run wild during this week.

June 11th - June 15th--- Mad Science Character Challenge: Creativity/Uniqueness

Mad Science camp is designed to teach science through interactive and hands-on activities. We love to safely have fun and make things bubble and possibly go bang!

June 18th – June 22nd --- Emergency Services Character Challenge: Serving Others

Our community is full of heroes that serve and protect us night and day. These heroes often don't receive the recognition they deserve. This week we will meet some people who put their lives on the line to serve us. We will learn the importance of being respectful to ALL people.

June 25th – June 29th --- Blast from the past Character Challenge: Diversity

Time to throw it WAY back! This week we will be having a blast exploring the 50s, 60s, 70s, 80s, and 90s/2000s. Kids and staff can dress like the different decades each day and have a great time.

July 2nd -July 6th --- Superhero Character Challenge: Making a difference

Everyone has a favorite super hero. This week will be everyone's opportunity to channel their inner superhero. Staff are excited and may even turn into superheroes.

July 9th-July 13th--- Messy Madness Character Challenge: Respect

One of the kids favorite weeks over the past few years has been messy madness. This week gives them a chance to be as messy as they want. Staff will have all sorts of slimy, yucky, and messy activities planned for this week. Don't wear anything this week that can't get messy. We will also take time to understand that while it is fun to make a mess, messes bring a need for responsibility.

July 16th-July 20th--- Super Soaked Summer Character Challenge: Responsibility

Break out your sunglasses and beach towels! This week we will be turning all sorts of games into a splash game! Water will be a major part of every day this week. Be sure to bring a bathing suit and a change of clothes!

July 23rd-July 27th--- Fear Factor Character Challenge: Courage

Creepy, crawly, yucky, slimy, smelly, and icky... Fear factor week will have it all! Be ready to face your fears and muster up some courage during this week.

July 30th -August 3rd--- U Game? Character Challenge: Team Work

Fitness and healthy living are a key factor in the Y's mission in our community. We believe that teaching children the importance of healthy choices will help them make better choices as they grow older. This week we will be about staying active. We will also have several activities that will be the kids competing against the staff in their group.

August 6th -August 7th --- Back to School Character Challenge: 100% Effort

Summer camp is coming to a close. We will take time to look back on all of our favorite activities that we participated in throughout the summer. We will also learn the importance of going back to school with an attitude that is ready to give 100% effort to everything we do!
